Career Opportunity
Institute Social Media Intern

Reporting: Manager, Strategic Communication
Location: Islamabad, Pakistan
Recruitment Type: Contractual

The Organization: Teach For Pakistan is a national non-profit organization committed to creating a powerful social movement for equity and excellence in education. We enable Pakistan’s best young talent to teach for two years in underserved communities and drive systemic change in education throughout their lives.

Teach For Pakistan envisions the day when every child in Pakistan will participate in an education that nurtures them to become loving, thinking, and engaged citizens. To that end, we are aiming to grow our movement aggressively over the coming years and are looking for team members who will work passionately and rigorously to achieve this goal.

The Training Institute

Teach For Pakistan will run a Training Institute in Islamabad and Karachi for six weeks. Through these six weeks, Teach For Pakistan’s newly recruited cohort of Fellows will come together for an intensive pre-service training program. The purpose of this Institute is to prepare Fellows to produce significant academic gains with their students and assume full-time teaching responsibilities starting in August. Additionally, the Institute will prepare Fellows to start their leadership development and community mobilisation journeys.

Position Overview:

The Institute Social Media Intern will play a pivotal role in capturing and showcasing the dynamic experience of Teach For Pakistan’s Training Institute. This position offers a unique opportunity to contribute to a social movement for equity and excellence in education while gaining hands-on experience in content creation and social media management. This assignment will last between 8 to 12 weeks.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Capture the day-to-day activities of the Institute, including training, workshops, and summer school through engaging content creation for social media platforms.

2. Gather diverse content, such as photos, videos, and quotes, to showcase the dynamic and enriching experience of the Institute.

3. Collaborate closely with the Institute team in Karachi to coordinate content collection efforts and ensure comprehensive coverage of program activities across Islamabad & Karachi.

4. Share live stories on Instagram throughout the six weeks of the Institute to provide real-time coverage and interaction opportunities for online audiences.
The ideal candidate is a self-starter who thrives in a high-stakes, fast-paced environment, seeks a learning experience and is deeply committed to social change.

They will have the following qualifications and skills:

- Enrollment in the third or final year of undergraduate studies. Fresh graduates are also encouraged to apply
- Strong written and verbal communication skills, with a keen eye for detail and creativity in content creation
- Proficiency in managing different social media channels, including Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, etc.
- Excellent critical thinking and problem-solving skills
- Strong organizational, planning, and time management skills
- Adaptability to work in diverse, fast-paced situations and circumstances

Stipend: Institute interns will be eligible for a small stipend to cover transport and other minor expenses.
